

(above) Dellght, the tall, young man, helped the learners at Nyadire Primary to write their letters to their sponsors in the U.S. He is studying soil management at the University of Zimbabwe. He is an orphan who came from a rural school and has succeeded.

Update on TNC's Scholarship Programs

During each mission trip, we meet the students for a meal and share their experiences. This year's focus was their mandatory community service. They have found joy in this volunteer work.

(above) Josphat traveled with us to Outreach schools in the back of a loaded pickup to deliver backpacks and maize meal to the orphans.

(left) Precious, who grew up at the Home of Hope, is beginning her degree in electrical engineering. She visits the HOH often to play with the children and to tutor them.

(right) Shelton (hoodie), who grew up at the Home of Hope, and Tinashe (hat) are both in agricultural programs. Here they are offloading bags of maize meal for the Outreach orphans in the outlying schools.

(right) Praise (dressed in black), who just completed her freshman year at Chinhoyi University, is helping Shallom with the sponsor questionnaire. Praise lives with her uncle and his wife at Nyadire Mission.

